

A good internet service provider?
Questions

A good electricity supplier?
Questions

A good pair of boots?
Questions

A good cake?
Questions

A good spanner?
Questions

What questions do you need to ask to know if they are good quality?
Are they good quality items?
Which object is most like a higher education course?

Look at the pictures of each item

1. This is a dialogue sheet—a table top thinking tool for sharing and exchanging thoughts and ideas.
2. In a good dialogue we use and evolve on each other's thoughts—rather than presenting winning arguments.
3. This sheet is your notepad. Write on it, make sketches and drawings on it, put your coffee on it.
4. Consensus is not necessary, but write down all opinions.
5. Make any observations/ doodles in the central space.
6. Address the tasks along the outside of the sheet as you go along. You don't have to consider the items in any particular order. Just move round the sheet and write down your thoughts.

Start here

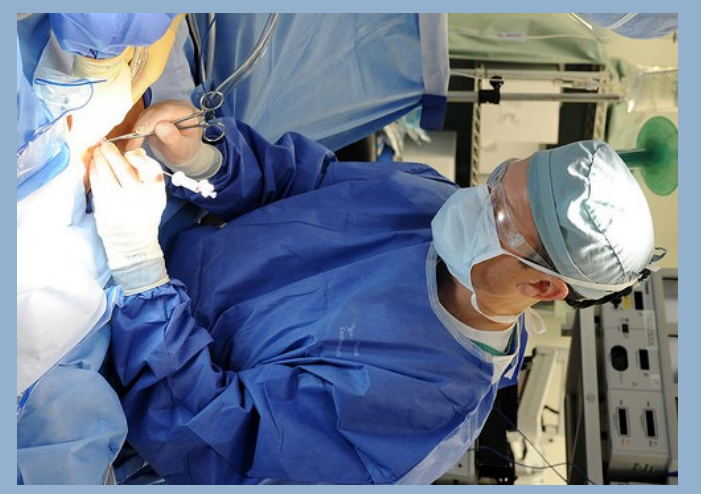

A good bicycle?
Questions

A good aeroplane?
Questions

A good racing car?
Questions

A good hospital?
Questions

*How do you know if these items are good quality?
What questions do you need to ask?*

Use this space for your thoughts

Start here

1. This is a dialogue sheet— a table top thinking tool for sharing and exchanging thoughts and ideas.
2. In a good dialogue we use and evolve on each other's thoughts— rather than presenting winning arguments.
3. This sheet is your notepad. Write on it, make sketches and drawings on it, put your coffee on it.
4. Consensus is not necessary, but write down all opinions.
5. Make any observations/ doodles in the central space.
6. Address the tasks along the outside of the sheet as you go along. You don't have to consider the items in any particular order. Just move round the sheet and write down your thoughts.

Look at the pictures of each item

What questions do you need to ask to know if they are good quality?
Are they good quality items?
Which object is most like a higher education course?

Look back at all the questions we have written? Which questions could you ask about a higher education course?
Questions